New Bulgarian University is the first private university in Bulgaria. It was established in 1991 as a modern institution which unites the best of the European and American educational systems. It is the first Bulgarian university that introduced BA, MA and PhD degrees as well as long- distance and continuous studies and the credit points system. Over 10 000 students are enrolled in the fields of social sciences, natural sciences new technologies, arts. A number of prominent figures such as the musicians Milcho Leviev, Raina Kabaivanska, Ennio Morricone, Rainer Bischof, Michael Frischenschlager, Mario Hossen, Ludmil Angelov and many others are Honorary Doctors and Honorary Professors of NBU.

Department of Music offers innovative programs in Music Performance, Dance, Sound Engineering, Composition and Conducting, Musicology, Musical Theatre. The Department of Music organizes series of master classes in instrumental, vocal performance and conducting by outstanding professors and artists from all over the world.

All NBU degrees are compatible with the Bologna Convention (2006) and approved by the National Agency for Assessment and Accreditation (NAAA) in Bulgaria. The artistic and scientific activities are supported by the Ministry of Education and Science, the Ministry of Culture and other national and international institutions.

The university has developed online teaching offered through its website operating by module MOODLE.

NBU is the main contractor and coordinator of successfully completed projects. The Music Department is closely linked to the EU's International Credit Mobility Program, based on bilateral agreements with the academies and conservatories in Europe.
